Recurring Material Delivery & Contractor Plans

Starting at $79 per qualifying delivery

A local delivery partner for repeat projects.

We offer recurring delivery arrangements for contractors, landscapers, property maintenance teams, and businesses that regularly need approved materials moved to job sites.

Who this is for

- Landscaping companies, independent contractors, handymen, property maintenance businesses, small construction businesses, real estate investors, and other businesses with recurring delivery needs.

Materials we may transport

- Bagged mulch and soil, garden supplies, approved packaged building materials, tools, job-site supplies, and other items that fit safely within the truck's rated capacity.

Plan options

- Contractor Partner — starting at $89 per qualifying trip for customers booking at least four eligible deliveries per month.
- Preferred Delivery Partner — starting at $79 per qualifying trip for customers booking at least eight eligible deliveries per month.
- Plan pricing depends on distance, load size, service frequency, loading needs, and scheduling. These are starting rates, not universal flat prices.

What recurring service includes

- Preferred pricing on qualifying deliveries.
- Advance scheduling when available.
- Transportation to approved job sites.
- A consistent point of contact for repeat delivery needs.
- Coordination of recurring service times by agreement.

Terms and exclusions

- Material purchase costs are separate unless specified. Heavy machinery, overweight or oversized loads, additional stops, extended loading/unloading, long-distance travel, and special equipment are not automatically included.
- Before starting, we confirm typical loads, locations, frequency, access, scheduling, and payment terms in writing.

Service area and availability are confirmed at booking. Final pricing depends on the agreed scope, access, load size, travel, and any special disposal requirements.
